The Spanish brought the game to Mexico in the 18th Century, around 1769

. Initially

played by the elite, La Lotera Mexicana grew in popularity in The 19th and 20th Centuries thanks to traveling fairs, known as Loteria Mexicana. It was introduced to Brazil in the 19th century and became popular among the elite. The game is a form of bingo and is played with a set of 35 numbered balls and a set of 35 numbered cards. The player bets on numbers and wins if they match the numbers drawn. The game is played in many countries, including Mexico, Brazil, and the United States. It is a popular form of entertainment and is often played in social settings. The game is
