A tweet from Phil Spencer, Microsoft Gaming s CEO, r ead: We are pleased to announce that Microsoft and @PlayStation have signed #1

27752; a binding agreement to keep Call of Duty on PlayStation following the ac quisition of Activision Blizzard. We look forward to #127752; a future where p layers globally have more choice to play their favorite games. &/p

In the United States, the FTC had argued #127752; the acquisition dea

I would hurt consumers whether they played video games on consoles or had subscr ptions because Microsoft would have #127752; an incentive to shut out rivals like Sony Group.

However, Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley ruled on 11 June: The FTC has &

#127752; not shown it is likely to succeed on its assertion the combined firm w ill probably pull Call of Duty from #127752; Sony PlayStation, or that its own ership of Activision content will substantially lessen competition in the video game library subscription and #127752; cloud gaming markets. &/p

To address the FTC s concerns, Microsoft had agreed to license Call of Duty to rivals, including a 10-year #127752; contract with Nintendo, contingen t on the merger closing.

On Sunday, Microsoft did not disclose the duration of the agreement wit h Sony.
