ite the difference! So why does a minecraft day go by so much faster than a real life? It's not just the difference in time, but the way the game handles time. In Minecraft, a day is 20 minutes in real life, but it feels like a whole day. This is because the game has a 24-hour cycle, with day and night alternating every 10 minutes. The game also has a 24-hour cycle of weather, with rain and snow alternating every 10 minutes. This makes the game feel like a real day, even though it's only 20 minutes long.
