ies in the US in recent years. The European Bank for Reconstruction and Development estimated that in the year's before the pandemic, roughly 10% of the world's population lived in poverty. The World Bank's latest report shows that the number of people living in extreme poverty has increased from 700 million in 2019 to 800 million in 2020. This is a significant increase, especially in light of the fact that the world's population is projected to reach 10 billion by 2050. The report also highlights the need for more investment in infrastructure and social services to help reduce poverty and inequality. The average total fees per engagement amounts to $23,700, which is a significant cost for many small businesses and startups. However, the benefits of working with a professional agency can often outweigh the costs, especially when it comes to marketing and branding.
